

Easy Fundraisers for Virtual Campaign

IT'S TIME TO THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX!

Lunchbox Auction: Employees create gourmet lunches to be auctioned off to the highest bidder. Give prizes for the most creative, nutritious and elegant meals.

Virtual Chopped Challenge: People pay to participate, film themselves receiving their set of ingredients and have to film their process of using the ingredients to make a finished product.

Virtual Office Bingo: Distribute printable Bingo Cards to employees who pay to play. Every day, email one bingo number to participants. The first one to reply with “BINGO” wins. The bingo game continues until all the prizes are distributed.

Guess the Number: Fill a clear jar with candy and have employees pay for a chance to guess the number of pieces in the jar. The most accurate guess wins the candy. This could also be done virtually by taking a photo and emailing it to participating employees.

Virtual Workout Class: Consider pairing the workout class with an overall health challenge—employees can pay $5 to enter the challenge and complete bingo with different health challenges (such as drinking water, walking a mile, etc.)

Coronavirus Swear Jar: Donation of $1-2 each time the virus is mentioned (outside of necessary mention).

Virtual Trivia: Send an email to invite employees to participate via email or posting on the company intranet. Inform them of any entry fee to participate and how they can pay. Create questions and answers and post to a digital platform—the first correct answer wins!

GIFs Against Humanity: Send an email to everyone with a word or phrase and people have to respond with their best .gif or meme that summarizes that phrase. The winner will receive a gift card. Considerations: have an impartial umpire or judge for the games so that it is a fair contest for all.
